CROPS ARE RUINED BY THE STORM

Loss Is Estimated at $30,000,000 in the Middle West

FOOD PRICES SHOOT UP

Truck Gardens, Orchards and Farms Devastated Throughout Country.

Chicago, April 25.—Premature budding crops of the middle West have been swept away in the most disastrous and far-reaching storm experienced in a generation. The disturbance has wrought more than $30,000-000 damages to fruits and vegetables and has started an upward shoot in the price of fresh foodstuffs that probably will be felt during the entire season.

The Michigan fruit belt—the backbone of the fruit district—is described as almost wholly wiped out for the season, while the freezing temperature in Illinois and Iowa not only has killed buds, flowers and fruits, but threatens to ruin oats.

In and about Chicago truck gardeners have seen all hopes of early vegetables blasted in a single night. Vegetables and flowers that had promised huge profits and low prices because of the early spring have been damaged beyond hope. All that can be done is to replant, where this is possible, making the season several weeks behind rather than early.

But in the end it will be the housekeeper who will feel the effect of the storm. The expected early vegetables and low prices, promised because of the lamblike March, have given place to promises of such high prices for green foodstuffs as have not obtained in years. An indication of this upward trend of prices was found early Saturday morning in South Water street even before the extent of the damage was known, when rhubarb and other fresh stuff jumped from 10 to 25 per cent in the wholesale prices.

The story of the storm is told best in the weather bureau reports that showed freezing temperature Saturday evening in practically all of the points that have been touched by the storm.
In the Northwest, however, a slight hint of warmer weather was contained in the upward movement of the mercury.

Here are some of the temperatures reported Saturday evening:
Chicago ..... 28 above zero
Kansas City ..... 30 above zero Keokuk ..... 28 above zero
Indianapolis ..... 20 above zero
Des Moines ..... 20 above zero Daytonport ..... 26 above zero Galesburg, Ill. .... 18 above zero Dubuque, Iowa ..... 25 above zero
St. Louis ..... 28 above zero Unionville, Mo. .... 26 above zero Milwaukee ..... 32 above zero

In the central and southern districts of Illinois the temperature fell to a fraction below 25 degrees Saturday morning, with the result that fruit growers announced that they had little hope of any crop at all this season.

Growers said they would have to see the effect of a day or so of sunshine on the trees and bushes, but that to all appearances the effect would indicate total destruction. Garden products which were up—radishes, lettuce and onions for the most part—were totally destroyed.

Snow fell all day, part of the time little short of a blizzard. It melted rapidly, but it is estimated at least two inches fell. Director William Bains of the United States weather bureau in Springfield stated that reports of cold were general from stations in Illinois except in the extreme southern part.

The hundreds of acres of apples, peach, pear cherry and plum orchards in Michigan were laden with millions of fruit producing buds, in full bloom, when the northwest blast and blizzard struck them. Every bud that was touched has turned black and has fallen from the trees.

From the present conservative reports from the various interior points in Michigan the entire crop will be a total loss. Possibly $6 per cent of the crapes, representing a crop of over 5,000,000 baskets last year, will produce fruit from a second bud. Unconfirmed reports indicate that all the small vine fruit, except the late varieties of strawberries not in bloom, is ruined. The uninjured percentage is estimated at 40 per cent of the total.

EXORBITANT STORM
LOSSES IN STATES OF THE MIDDLE WEST

reported as total losses. Damage, $2,000,000.
Iowa — Storms in Iowa have continued with greater or less vigor for nearly a week, but the frigid atmosphere and snows of the last two days have done the greatest damage. Not only fruit and vegetables, but even the oats crop is threatened. Entire damage, $10,000,000.

Indiana — Apple orchards and truck gardens that supply Chicago were the greatest sufferers. The damage, which was confined to the northern and central districts, amounts to $2,000,000.

Michigan — Fruit belt almost entirely gone for the season. All that remains, according to expert growers, is the grape crop, which has been damaged to a great extent. Damage, $4,000,000.

Wisconsin — It is estimated that 50 per cent of the fruit crop and all of the early vegetables and green stuffs intended for the Chicago market have been killed. Damage, $2,000-000.

Kansas — Snow and low temperatures have killed the buds, and, in many instances, even the leaves on the trees. The corn crop, however, is safe. Damage $1,000,000.

Kentucky — All the fruits and vegetables, as well as budding plants and flowers, have been damaged by the cold weather and blizzards of snow, largely because of the fact that the
had reached an abnormally early development. Loss, $1,500,000.

Missouri — Clouds and favorable conditions saved much of the fruit Friday night, but the clear weather and continued cold of last night completed the damage. Estimated losses, $7,000,000.

Ohio — Early fruit, particularly watermelon and other vines, have been killed by the snows and freezing weather. Grain has not been hurt.
Loss, $500,000.

Nebraska — Small gardeners and truck farmers were the heaviest losers in the storm that it is believed now has not damaged the early wheat. Loss, $1,500,000.

The cold and snow which has already caused such a great loss to fruit and grain raisers continued today.

Several tugs are being held in readiness to rescue the crew of the passenger steamer Iowa, which ran aground off Racine, Wis., Saturday, should she show signs of going to pieces.

BOATS IN DANGER.

Chicago, April 25.—Five boats which put from here today limped back into port after an unsuccessful battle with wind and waves. The northwest storm which struck the lakes Saturday continued today unabated and many boats were towed into lake ports disabled.

NO FATALITIES REPORTED.

Detroit, April 25.—Marine men are confident today that the two-day blizzard which has swept the upper lakes will pass off without fatality. The Northern King, the tug Zenith, of Cleveland, and the Pere Marquette car ferry, which were reported missing yesterday, have all made port. The Monroe Smith, although still missing, is believed to be making her way slowly above Purt Huron.

$200,000 LOSS AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Indianapolis, April 25.—A fire caused by spontaneous combustion in the heart of the wholesale district here, caused a $200,000 loss today.

FRUIT CROP RUINED.

Columbus, April 25.—The heavy frost of Saturday and Sunday night has practically ruined the fruit crop in the Scioto valley, with the exception of late apples. All grain in the lowlands has been blighted. The prospect for a splendid fruit crop had been the best in years until Saturday.

NO DAMAGE REPORTED.

With May literally puckering under mouth to kiss April good-bye for another year, it came tonight close to skating weather Saturday night. The unexpected cold snap that developed the latter part of last week resulted in a widespread scare throughout Licking county, where the fruit trees were all out in full bloom, promising crops never before equalled in the county. The ground has been quite damp for several days and it was feared that a frost on top of the wet conditions would literally cook things. During Saturday night the thermometer got down close to the "freezing" point, and there was considerable frost Sunday morning.
Still, we should not be discouraged.
Old horticulturists say that in their opinion everything is still safe, owing to the cloudy conditions that prevailed. So what's the use. Let's all cheer up and hope for the best. If we can get through another week, why then the chances are that we will have smooth sailing.

ALBANIANS

ZEPPELIN BALLOON ON A RAMPAGE

Big Dirigible, Pride of German Nation, Breaks
From Moorings

CAUGHT IN BIG STORM

Damages Will Probably Amount to $125,000—Soldier Fatally Injured.

Berlin, April 25.—The big dirigible, Zeppelin Second, recently constructed from a large popular subscription fund, broke from its anchorage today in a severe storm, and is almost a total wreck. A soldier, who was in the balloon, was fatally injured. Repairs will cost $125-000.

The Germans, chagrined at their loss, find comfort in the fact that it did not drift to foreign soil, where its secret would have been disclosed.

Zeppelin II. was enroute from Hamburg to Cologne and was forced to take the earth at Weilburg because of the sudden storm. While the craft was anchored and apparently secure, the wind increased in violence and a fierce gust severed the ropes. Before the guardsmen could get to the scene the Zeppelin was drifting before the gale and soon passed out of sight.

After being in the air twenty minutes, it came down with a crash, smashing the steel railings and the car, and tearing the gas bags. The soldier who had been aboard on guard duty was probably fatally injured. The wrecked dirigible will be shipped at once to Cologne for repairs. This is the second smash it has figured in. The first was on May 29 last, when Count Zeppelin tried to take the car from Maastricht near Friedrichshafen, to Berlin. It reached Bitterfeld, 86 miles short of Berlin, where it stayed two days, and then went to Berlin, where the emperor inspected it. Being short of fuel, it turned back and descended near Goeppingen to replenish its tanks. It ran into a tree, but repairs were made in 25 hours, and the return trip was accomplished in safety.

The Zeppelin II., with the Gross
I. and the Parseval II., sailed from Cologne to Badhomberg last Friday.
The three ships engaged in a series of maneuvers before the kaiser. Owing to slight injuries the Gross was sent back by train. The Parseval sailed Saturday night and reached Cologne in safety. The Zeppelin waited until Sunday morning, but after a hard struggle with the wind, was forced to land at Weilburg.

EDWARD P. WESTON MAYOR GAYNOR
AND THE CITY HALL AT NEW YORK CITY

New York, April 25.—The record-breaking walk of Edward P. Weston on the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean is fast drawing to an end, and while thousands have greeted him through the west and middle west, it has remained for New York state to turn out by the tens of thousands to cheer him along his way. Weston who is more than ten days ahead of his scheduled time, will be greeted at the city hall, New York City, by Mayor Gaynor, who is not only a friend of the veteran pedestrian, but somewhat of a champion walker himself.

DIPLOMATS TO RESORT TO DRAWING STRAWS TO SETTLE MOMENTOUS QUESTION OF THE DAY

New York, April 25.—A strenuous race is being waged by steamship agents in New York as to who will have the honor of carrying a "ship-load" of diplomats to Europe early in May. And while the steamship agents are hustling for the patronage some seven ambassadors and ministers to the United States are trying to induce their fellow passengers to go by one of five lines. What boat will carry the distinguished men will not be settled for another ten days, and then it is promised that all the arts of diplomacy will be set to the winds and a regular schoolboy trick will be called into play to settle the question, viz., drawing long and short straws. Baron von Hengervar, of Austria-Hungary; Senor Don Gon-zalo de Quesada, of Cuba; Count Moltke, of Denmark; Count J. H. von Bernstorff, of Germany; Right Hon. James Bryce, of England; Baron des Planches, of Italy; and Baron Rosen, of Russia, in comparing notes in Washington, decided that they were all going to Europe for a vacation about the same time. It was suggested that the voyage could be settled.

SOLONS WILL HAVE TO HUSTLE TO GET MEASURES THROUGH

Columbus, April 25.—The legislature has been in session four months and not one great reform measure has passed both houses. If the plan to adjourn Friday is carried out the following bills will have to be acted upon in a few days: The Norris Employers Liability bill, the Woods Public Utilities bill, Alsford's Board of Control and Tax Limitation bill, and the Johnson bill to abolish the state tax.

A bill to amend the present law by cutting baseball from the list of prohibited Sunday amusements is being prepared to be introduced tomorrow.
If the legislature fails to pass the Anderson bill over the Governor's veto.

County officials and their agents have one of the strongest lobbies of the year working to force the Lawyer bill through the senate and extend their terms of office from two to four years. Representative Bense charges that a fund of $10,000 to maintain this lobby was raised among county officials by assessment.

Representative John Gilson of Jefferson county introduced a bill in the house this afternoon appropriating $10,000 for the relief of the families of the fifteen miners killed at Amsterdam last week. It will be voted upon tomorrow.

Representative Kempel of Akron
finally succeeded today in introducing his non-partisan Judiciary bill.

Governor Harmon stated today that the rumor to the effect that he is against the Woods Public Utilities bill is entirely incorrect.

"I am in favor of regulating public utility corporations. I do not know just what shape the Woods bill is in the features which I objected to may have been removed.

Advances to her daughter. Mrs. Swope would not discuss the rumor that she is having her daughter watched to protect her against the mysterious danger which killed other members of the family.

DEED OF INSANE WOMAN.

Chicago, April 25.—Mrs. Margaret Collins, 26, temporarily insane, turned on all the gas jets in her home today, causing the death of herself and her two small children.

BIG GUARD FOR WESTON

Albion, N. Y., April 25.—Pedestrian Weston apparently recovered from the attack of indigestion which seized him Saturday and went through here in the rain today accompanied by about 200 amateurs.

SUPT. HARTER TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION

The members of the Board of Community Directors of Licking county received the following communication Monday morning, April 25, which explains itself:

Licking County Infirmary,
Union Station, O., April 22, '10.
To the Hon. Board of Community Directors of Licking Co., O.
Gentlemen: Owing to continued ill health we deem it advisable and hereby tender our resignation as superintendent and matron of the Licking County Infirmary, the same to take effect May 1st, 1910, and respectfully request that the same be accepted.

Thanking your honorable board for many past favors and courtesies, shown us, and wishing you and the institution success—
We are yours very truly
CEPHAS HARTER,
Superintendent.

SOLONS TO ENTERTAIN ROOSEVELT

Paris, April 25.—Mr. Roosevelt passed a comparatively quiet Sunday in Paris. Accompanied by Ambassador Bacon in the morning he attended service in the American church in the Rue De Berri and listened to a sermon of Rev. Chauncey W. Goodrich.

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Kermit and Miss Ethel, attended the American church in Avenue De L'Alma.

Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt lunched with Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, the other guests including Premier Briand, M. Barthelemy, minister of justice, Consul General Mason, Anatole Leroy-Beaulieu, Albert De Coubertin, Count De Lasteyrie and Count De Pourtales.

In the afternoon there was an automobile trip to Steurmain, where Colonel Roosevelt visited the chateau of Henry IV. On returning the Roosevelts dined quietly with Ambassador and Mrs. Bacon at the American embassy.

Although the general elections were held in France, Col. Roosevelt did not take the trouble to visit the polls. He was, however, heard up-time to investigate matters which did not concern him directly. Besides he supposed that the election machinery in France was no better nor worse than that in the United States.

Today Colonel Roosevelt is the guest of the municipality of Paris.
The city fathers will receive him in the Hotel de Ville, where luncheon will be served in honor, after which he will sign his name in the "Livre D'Or," which contains the names of all the monarchs and noted persons who have been the guests of the city.

This evening he will dine with General Brugere and from there he will go to the opera, where he will occupy the presidential box. Salome was the bill, but by Mr. Roosevelt's expressed desire, Saint Saens' "Samson and Delilah" will be produced with ballet.

At the close of Mr. Roosevelt's lecture in the Sorbonne, some one in the gallery hissed, but this passed unnoticed on the applause.

This lecture has created a tremendous impression in France. The newspapers, in spite of electoral campaign, devote an immense amount of space to it and Colonel Roosevelt's doings.

With the exception of some mocking criticisms by free lances, such as Henri Rochefort, editor of Patrie, the papers of all shades of opinion ring with approval of the doctrine of civic morality expounded by the ex-president.

Some of the ultra-Catholic organs are silent, but others dwell especially upon Mr. Roosevelt's definition of the rights of the minority.

The Temps declares that the impression produced is all the greater because Mr. Roosevelt did not present theories that he conceived, but experiences that he lived. It finds many lessons therein for France and concludes with an appeal to France to take "the advice of an honest man whose deeds and life during thirty years qualify him to speak."

The Journal Des Debats says that Mr. Roosevelt's words are the echo of the old Puritan spirit which made a conquering England, and bear a strange significance when he preaches a sane and vigorous life of which he is the embodiment.

"Our great democracies," says the paper, "are experiments. From the beginning they leaned toward corruption. Roosevelt's simple and energetic language is that of Hercules armed, not with a club, but a broom at the door of the Augean stable."

WAYNE WHEELER

And Anti-Saloon League Officials Will Have to Pay $4500 For Alleged Libel.

Columbus, April 25.—A verdict for $4500 damages was returned in Common Pleas court today against Wayne B. Wheeler and the anti-saloon league officials in favor of Ernest M. Reeve an army officer at Ft. Niagara, N. Y.
Reeve charged that the American Island, the anti-saloon organ, published a libelous article concerning him with the words at the time of the Washington C. H. local option election in 1907.

TWO HEADS

Brooklyn Child Six Years Old Speaks English and German With Two Mouths.

New York, April 25.—John O. Nelson, of 1114 Stuart avenue, Brooklyn Hills, Queensborough, has a daughter who has two well developed heads, he says. She is 6 years old and is unable to walk or sit up, but her father says, she is as bright as any child he ever saw.

When the child was born the doctors told its parents that she could not live, but Nelson employed the best specialists, and succeeded in keeping his little one not only alive, but in giving her comparative health.
This cost him all he owned, he says.
About $23,000, and he and his wife now are poor.

The Nelsons do all possible to prevent strangers seeing their child and wrap her up to get her out of doors without attracting attention. The child speaks English and German with equal fluency, using both mouths when she speaks, her father says.

ROOSEVELT VISITS
PARIS OCULIST

Paris, April 25.—A mis-shot made when trying to bring down an elephant in Africa, several weeks ago, having convinced Mr. Roosevelt that something was the matter with his eyes, he took advantage of his first idle half hour in Paris to visit an oculist.

On one occasion water formed on his glasses and a blur resulted, which threatened serious trouble, for an elephant at which his gun was pointed seemed conscious of the situation of the shooter and started on a wild charge in his direction.

Mr. Roosevelt was not hurt, but was more than ever certain that either his eyes or his glasses needed attention.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the bladder, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, and how it cures, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed, in writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

RECRUITS IN FAST CONTEST

NINE FAST INNINGS PLAYED AT WEHRLE BASEBALL PARK ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

BUNCH LOOKS GOOD

Good Crowd Was Present in Spite of the Cold Weather—Notes of the Exhibition Game.

Monday recruits went nine fast innings at Wehrle park Sunday afternoon, and demonstrated to 300 fans that there is some real baseball material in the squad assembled by Manager Burrill. The weather was cold but the candidates worked in excellent form and showed themselves to be ready to take the ball to the summer cruise.

They were given the opportunity of seeing almost the entire bunch in action, and they had numerous chances to show their appreciation of the men. For some circus stunts were indulged in by the recruits.

Looking up as the Whites and Grays, and captained by Anderson and White, the bunch went through nine full innings in good time. The Whites eventually winning out by the score of 2 to 1. Both their runs were earned.

The Grays got away from the pole in record time and their run, the only score secured by them during the game, came in the first round.

Right pitchers were used by both sides during the contest, and the fans were able to "get a line" on the heaters, although they naturally took things easy on account of the cold weather and took no chances with their salary hams.

Several sensations were unworked for the benefit of the bugs assembled, probably the biggest being young Conley at second, who handled 11 chances without a wobble. Hanna at short, looks good. Sensational catches were made by Long, Conlin and Franklin. Russell at third, made a one handed haul-in of what looked to be a sure single.

The Grays counted in the first frame when Hanna was started around the corners on a wild heave by Russell, and the youngster kept going when Franklin was passed. A moment later a mean infield hit by Minger allowed Hanna to cross the mat.

Fast baseball went the game for the Whites in their part of the third inning. Singles by Gossett and Murray put them in traveling trim and both were on their toes when Conlin laid down a neat sacrifice hit. "Peppah" Anderson picked out a club that suited him and sent a fast single into middle garden, scoring both runners. He then made a neat steal but died on the middle cushion, for both Cover and Harlow breezed.

Anderson started the game as second and he proved himself a clever second sacker. He is the same old gingersy Bob, and his every move was watched by the fans with interest. Gossett and Murray both did work back of the wind pad for Anderson's gang. Pavey had some trouble in handling the ball during practice, but during the game he accepted all chances and was the originator of a fast double play.

Both Davis and Minger who did guard duty at first worked nicely for their sides. Red White carried on the batting honors of the day and three times he hit safely once for an extra sack. White used his head at the plate and waited each time until he was given just what he wanted. Then he clouted. At third he was fast and on bases he again showed the old head advantage.

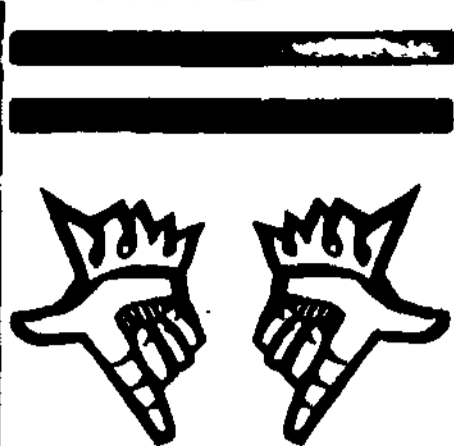

Long did several fancy stunts in left pasture, and Franklin in center looks like a find. He had but one opportunity during the game, but it was a hard chance, a running catch, and he smothered it. Herring pulled in the only chance he was offered during the battle.

Taken all in all the material looks good, but the men will have to show fight for Manager Berryhill wants a real team. The scores:

PRE-SEASON NOTES.
"General Jack" Warburton, who is with Hyde's Theater Party at the Auditorium this week, reported to Manager Berryhill as soon as he got in town and watched the game from the bench. He also put on an announcing specialty and was given a round of applause.

The ball players will be the guests of Mr. Warburton this evening and will occupy good seats from which to see "The Glided Fox".

Zanesville will play the Molders tomorrow afternoon and the game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. This is probably the only game Newark will play with an outside club before the season opens, and there should be a good crowd present.

Bunny Pearce will join the Dayton team in a short time. His father, who has been ill, is much improved and Bunny will join the Vets for the summer campaign.

Tom Quail, formerly a twirler of the local staff, was in Newark Saturday, looking over the gang and incidentally calling on Manager Berryhill, an old friend. Tom says he is out of baseball for good, but it is almost a sure bet that when the warm days come he will get the fever and will sign with some club.

The stands and fence at the park presented a much cleaner appearance than usual yesterday for everything has been whitewashed.

Owner Mead gathered in the pastorate at the gate and wore a broad smile for he is anxious for the season to start, and the shouts from the stands made it seem that summer is almost here.

Five more players have been released by Portsmouth, and nine men have been ordered not to report. This reduces the Shoemaker squad to 15 men. Manager Roach must have some team for that puts him but one man over the league limit.

NEWARK GIVEN OPENING GAME

Portsmouth Will Start the Season at Wehrle Park—Only one Holiday Date for Newark.

The schedule of the Ohio State League was so revised yesterday at the meeting which was held in Columbus that Newark will get an opening date and Portsmouth will be our opponent. Last season Newark opened in that city and lost, and fans are hoping the same hope will hold good this year with the visiting team, not waiting Manager Roach any longer.

Newark also given ten Sunday dates and the Labor day game, but Decoration day the Molders are at Chillicothe and July Fourth at Marion. The schedule will probably be released for publication this week. The teams will open the season as follows:

Lancaster at Chillicothe, Lima at Marion, Portsmouth at Newark, May 11 will be the day raising date at Lima, the Marion club being scheduled to appear there. Other openings on that date will be at Lancaster and Portsmouth, the Chillicothe and Newark clubs opening. The schedule gives each club 10 Sundays at home and these holiday dates:

May 29—Lima at Lancaster, Marion at Portsmouth, Newark at Chillicothe, July 4—Chillicothe at Lima, Newark at Marion, Lancaster at Portsmouth.

Sept 5—Marion at Newark, Lancaster at Portsmouth, Lima at Chillicothe.

NEWARK HIGH DEFEATS DOANE

McCann Pitched Good Game for Locals and is Given Good Support in Saturday's Game.

Newark High school defeated Doane academy Saturday afternoon by a large score and gave the boys from Granville nine goose eggs, the score being 10 to 0 in the opening game. McCann pitched a game beyond the ordinary, juggling himself out of several noes by good judgment and excellent support. The features outside McCann's pitching, were the batting stunts of P. Sachs and Mitchell. The present High school team is a good one and should be loyally supported. The scores:

Lebanster won two games yesterday from the White Sox of that city, and Marion took the Dayton Shilohs into camp by the score of 3 to 2. The second team defeated Upper Sandusky by the score of 9 to 0.

At McClintock, who has been manager at Lancaster since it was decided to put a team in that town again, has resigned and returned to his home in Columbus. No reason is given for McClintock's sudden act. First Baseman Will, who is some big man, being over six feet in height and weighing 225 pounds, has been made manager to succeed McClintock.

Manager Joe Lewis has practically announced his team although he has 30 men on the Marion roll. Reilly will catch the opener while Van Tum will play first. Al Hummel second, El Ayette shortstop, Jay Wiloughby third. Zmich will work the opener, but the outfield has not been decided upon. The can is due to rattle there today.

Peggy Moore pitched for Portsmouth against an amateur team Sunday, and showed one hit in the four innings he worked.

AMUSEMENTS

DAVID WARFIELD.
To have David Warfield in his Music Master for a run of months must indeed be a treat, because just to have him with us for one night, is hardly sufficient time in which to assimilate the myriad details which mark his every act, and the glamor of his great emotional work overflows for a time every other feature. It is only in reviewing the play in the after hours, and we are bound to do it, that we recall with amazement the minute things so complete in themselves, so obviously necessary and yet so neglected by our attention.

There could be but one Music Master, there never was and probably never will be but one von Barwig, the dear old heart-broken German music master, with his gentleness, kindness, and with his touch of quaint humor. His cheery hopefulness as each sorrow bears down upon him anew, especially when he finds that if he acknowledged himself as the father of his daughter he might mar her future happiness. Every wrinkle and line in the face of David Warfield seems to have been put there by the sorrows of von Barwig, and his moods sway us, our tears are compels and we laugh facetiously with him.

In the Music Master David Warfield is even more of a creator than Charles Klein its author, the latter presented the character and Warfield made it. Like all Klein plays "The Music Master" deals with the sentimental, but in this the author is not so plainly seen as in the other productions. The story told is that of David Warfield, a famed musician of Leipzig, who at the zenith of his success, returns to find that his wife and little daughter have fled to America with a false friend. Von Barwig follows them to America, but the genius is unrecognized and he barely supports himself in a dime museum. In his years of search he suffers his pleasure and conceals his sorrows from three companions, Signor Tagliafico, Mons Louis Pinae and Herr Augustus Pons. He finally finds his daughter, installed in the home of the man who betrayed his trust, and calling him father. Von Barwig is about to denounce him, when he discovers it might blight her future happiness so, noble even in his anger, he relinquishes his claim. He plans to return to Leipzig, when the daughter becomes acquainted with the true facts and they join hands and von Barwig enters into a new life.

The three productions of Von Barwig, Augustus Pons, the Italian, Francis Galla, the Parisian and Bernhard Galla, the German, have been selected for their fitness for the roles assigned and each is superb in his delineation. But Niemeyer is probably the most delightful German known to the stage. Miss Janet Durbin, as Helen Stenton, is a winsomely sweet character, and her unaffected earnestness and shyness is as natural as her smile. In the last act, as Miss Houston of Houston street, Miss Marie Bates is a pleasure and her every effort as the landlady is perfect, even to her proclivity for "Hiawatha."

Belasco has surrounded Mr Warfield with a magnificent company and the presentation of the play is detail perfect, but even these great features are forgotten in the interest that Warfield inspires as the pathetically lovable old music master.

FIRST DRAMATIZATION OF TWAIN'S "TOM SAWYER"

"I have long been convinced that the very first dramatization of Mark Twain's 'Tom Sawyer' was put on the boards by your humble servant," remarked L. H. Cunningham, manager of the Hyde Theatre Party, who are playing at the Auditorium this week. "I was a kid about 14 years old and Tom Sawyer was my hero. I almost knew the book by heart. I organized a stock company of about 75 school kids of my own age, and we rehearsed in father's barn. The play, as I remember, had 16 or 17 acts, and went straight through the book. In those days the only theatre in Lima was the old town hall, and the fire chief was janitor. We youngsters sometimes helped him, so we arranged for the free use of the hall for our performance. I always believed in advertising, and we used tops of pasteboard boxes, lettered in ink, and had signs tacked on all the trees in town advertising the production and giving the date two weeks in advance. 'When the day came, we had the first three or four acts down pretty hot but the other dozen acts we had to study up between the scenes. The house was packed to the extent of about ten dollars a dime a throw and the play really went smoothly till we reached the graveyard scene where the young doctor, Injun Joe and Muff Potter are robbing the grave. I remember the lad who took the part of the doctor, doubtless and played both that and Aunt Polly. I was Huck Finn and by several weeks' search had a real genuine dead cat that was my proudest property during the play—fact is, I kept it as long afterward as the board of health would allow.

The grave yard scene opened somberly enough. We had a bucket of sand down under the stage trap door, and the boys shovelled it out and then drew out the casket, which was a store box we had stolen from a hardware store. When the casket was drawn out the house howled in delight. I afterward learned because on the side of it appeared in big black letters 'Boone Hardware Co. Lima, Ohio.'

"If you remember the story, the young doctor hits Muff over the head

START HOUSEKEEPING RIGHT

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

with a shovel, and in the quarrel that ensues Joe stabs the doctor and Muff thinks he did it. We had it all arranged very dramatically but I had warned the boy playing the part of the doctor not to hit Muff over the head with the shovel. He didn't. He hit him the awfulest swipe over the shins with that shovel that ever saw.

"It brought down the house and brought Muff to his knees. Muff arose with tears in his eyes, and carefully rubbed his shins. He was a slow tempered boy but he was mad as a hornet. Finally he drew out: 'You think you're darned smart, don't you?' and hobbled off that stage and refused to go back. 'That broke up the show, and it had eight acts yet to run. So we dismissed the audience and the whole troupe went down to the river side and went in swimming.

"I veritably believe that was the first public performance ever given of Tom Sawyer. About ten years ago Klaw & Erlanger put on an elaborate production but it was a failure. Ours was not."

THE ORPHEUM.

Despite bad weather conditions and counter attractions, the Orpheum theatre played to large houses last week and the audiences seemed to be thoroughly satisfied with the program offered. Commencing with the matinee today and continuing over Wednesday, another very good bill is to be presented. "Be Any," the novelty gymnast, is here to introduce new stunts in his line, and we know he will certainly please with his work. His clown work is bound to create laughter and his contortion work is both clever and original. Ruth Auro, the petite singing comedienne, with her late variety, is another pleasing feature. Varin & Burr, "Those Kollege Koons," will make a hit with their eccentric comedy, singing, etc. The above clever bill is headed by Frank Maltese & Co., who present a very funny sketch. Below we give the cast:

Claude St. Claire—Mr. Edwin Lloyd.
Mr. Tanberry—Salvatore Maltese.
Helen St. Clair—Marie Lewis.

FRANK MALTSE & CO. TELLS A GOOD ONE

Frank Maltese, the clever comedian who opens at the Orpheum today, whose fund of reminiscences is practically inexhaustible, told this one to Manger Fenberg and a party of friends at the Hotel Warden last evening. He said:

Being a true American boy, I naturally was wild about circuses. Only wish I was here the latter part of the week, so I could go to the Wallace-Hagenback show. For months before one of these big shows would visit the town in which I lived in my youthful days. I would run errands for our neighbors, do little extra chores for my mother. In fact, there was nothing possible I wouldn't do in order to hoard up the treasure that would buy me a general admission seat in the big tent. But mother was not so fond of circuses, baseball and other sports that delight the young Savages and Finns. She much preferred that I take more interest in school, especially in Sunday school, and would always preface any promise to let me go to a circus or a ball game with the injunction that I be sure to attend church first. One time the Wallace Shows were billed to play our town on Monday, and as mother was going to visit some friends on the previous Sunday, she was more than usually profuse in her admonition regarding Sunday school.

I promised faithfully that I would attend church on Sunday. If I might go to the circus the following day. She consented, and early in the morning of the first day of the week she left on her visit. I went to church, but fear and my devotion was not what it might have been. Visions of elephants, clowns and acrobats crowded all thoughts of prayer out of my mind, and I was glad when the services were finally over. The next day I went to the circus and was delighted beyond measure. Mother came home that evening and was somewhat disappointed when she heard me talking of nothing but what I had seen at the show.

"My son, did you go to Sunday school?" "Yes, mother," I replied, "but I was there was much difference between the services and what you saw at the circus?" she inquired. "I saw everybody yelled, 'For Lord's sake sit down!'" she said. "Well, mother, I made this reply: 'Father chuckled, but motherer sub can't say there was much difference. bed, and muttered something about In Sunday school the teacher said: the wickedness of the rising generation. Stand up for Jesus,' but at the circus—"

It was soon found that she had been stricken with paralysis. She was taken to her home, where she is still in quite a serious condition when her age is taken into consideration, she being 76 years of age.

PNEUMONIA CAUSED DEATH OF FRANK JONES

Kansas City, Mo., April 25.—Frank Jones, 55 years old, died at his home, 107 East Ninth street, at 12:30 o'clock Saturday morning of erysipelas complicated with pneumonia, after an illness of several weeks.

Two nieces live in Kansas City. They are Mrs. George Moore and Mrs. Marie Kuman, a widow. He is survived by one brother, Edward W. Jones, Massillon, O., his nearest living relative, Mrs. Annie Metzger, a niece, lives in Massillon, O.

Mr. Jones was a member of the Elks and Eagles lodges in Kansas City. He was a member of the Elks Lodge more than twenty years.

Jones was a native of Newark, O., and went to Caldwell, Kas., when first he came West. Down in Caldwell, as he often was wont to tell, he entered the employ of a hotel keeper. It was the only hotel in town—and he served as bell boy, night and day clerk according to his version, besides doing the porter work and meeting the trains. Another thing that Jones did with great success, he said, was to run out and catch the chickens for the Sunday dinner. "Frequently I used to chase a chicken to the territorial line," he used to say.

When Jones quit Caldwell the first time, he went to Joplin, but he didn't remain long. "The fellow I was working for in Caldwell didn't discover what a good thing I was until I got away," he said. "I discovered that when I left he had to hire a whole staff of help. So he offered to raise my salary and I went back. When I went back the second time, along with my raise in salary, I was promoted. Besides doing the porter work, clerking, hopping bells and meeting trains, I also helped out with the bar."

Whenever Jones was "stung" by anyone he always told about it, with embellishments. That was one of his ways of getting even. On one occasion when he went to Chicago he took a cab from the depot. The hotel was across the street. He didn't know it. The cab driver, after Jones had got in the cab, made no pretense of feeling his victim. He drove right across the street.

"Here's your place," said the cabman. Jones got out. "Get many of 'em like me?" he asked, as he handed the man fifty cents. "Quite a few," said the cabman. "Glad to hear it," said Jones. "Come in and have a drink."

The several dogs which Frank owned were kept for him by persons who needed money and whom he helped by letting them take care of the dogs. The story of Frank Jones' deeds of charity needs no coloring. He was thoughtful of his tin folk and good to his friends. Several years ago he returned to visit a brother in Ohio. His brother was doing hard work in one of the mills there. He put him on the pension list with the absolute provision that the brother would quit work. He paid for the education of nieces and nephews. Only a year ago he made a trip back to Ohio just to attend a graduation exercise in which two of his nieces were to participate. After the graduation he brought them back to Kansas City and entertained them lavishly.

want to show those kids the time of their lives," he said, and he did it.

Jones was the constant target for quick "touches." Anybody who appealed to him for the price of a meal generally got it if he appeared honest. And he would feed a dog as quickly as he would feed a man. Jones loved high-bred dogs, but his sympathy went out to dogs of no pedigree. If Jones saw a cur dog on the street and that cur dog looked hungry Jones would feed him.

The hard work and rough-and-tumble experience of his life in the West, particularly in the wide-open border days of "Caldwell, Sonner county, Kansas"—for he always gave the name in full—furnished Jones with no end of good stories. His acquaintance was very large and was not limited to Kansas City. Among his friends was John Abernathy, the live wolf catcher, whom President

EXCITING RACING

The Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows Are Featuring, As in Former Years.

During the history of the Great Wallace Shows that enterprise was noted for putting on the most intensely realistic acting in its hippodrome contests that were ever witnessed under canvas. B. E. Wallace, referred to by intimate friends as "the Hoosier Showman," was always found of fine horses and especially those of the speed ring. Every horse of the four hundred used by these shows is purchased personally by Mr. Wallace, most of them being bought on the horse markets of the big cities, or in Missouri, Iowa or Kentucky.

When the Carl Hagenbeck Trained Animal Shows were combined with the Great Wallace Show, it was feared that it might be necessary to shorten the circus programme on account of the many acts given by the wild beasts. When it was suggested that the hippodrome races be cut out, Mr. Wallace was up in arms. To him that is the best part of his show and since he has taken an interest in the racing contests and puts on the hippodrome in a manner that distinguishes the races from the farces of races with other shows, Mr. Wallace said the hippodrome would not only be continued, but he would have even better racing than heretofore. By a great deal of scheming the combination of the two performances has been secured without losing any feature.

By means of cash prizes to the lads and gentlemen winning the most of the races during the week, the show has caused a real rivalry to exist between the contestants, and though the racing is good natured, yet it is always for blood and testing the nerve and ingenuity of the riders and the speed of the horses to the entire satisfaction of the spectators. "Oh, come, let us go before the racing begins," is a remark frequently heard at circuses, but the knowing ones never make such a suggestion when attending the exhibition of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Combined Shows, which will be in this city for one day, Saturday, April 30.

BUCKEYE LAKE

Restocked With Bass, Over 100,000 in One Lot Being Placed Saturday.

Columbus, April 25.—Listen, Mr. Angler, how does this sound? More than 100,000 good sized specimens of black and Lake Erie bass were dumped into the waters of Buckeye Lake Saturday.

State Game Warden J. C. Spehn went to Sandusky Friday to hurry up the long promised consignment of big fish to Buckeye Lake, only to learn that the car had been started for the pond two hours before his arrival, and now they are awaiting the cast of the minnow or worm.

With two bad winters, and handicapped by the drawing out of most of the water, the game fish in Buckeye Lake have dwindled much in number, until they are as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth.

However, with the weather rough for the next several weeks, the fish recently put into the waters will have ample opportunity to spawn. "The supply of eggs at the Put-in-Bay hatcheries is plentiful, and we are well pleased with the situation," said General Spehn on his return yesterday.

NORTON'S BOOK STORE AFTER THE FIRE ANNOUNCEMENT.

It is with pleasure we announce to our many customers, that we have finished work of adjusting our recent fire, with insurance companies and are now working day and night getting stock in shape for our Big Fire Sale, which will open some time this week.

In going through our stock we find it is not nearly so badly damaged as we at first supposed, in fact a goodly portion seems not to be injured at all, but in order to let in the workmen to remodel the store and to allow us to start entirely new again, we have decided to sell every item of merchandise at once. In order to do this we realize that we must lose a large amount of money, but bear in mind that what will be our loss will be your gain.

Again thanking our customers for past favors and trusting each and everyone may be a sharer of our many Fire Sale Bargains.

WINTERS PITCHES NO-HIT GAME

The Hermanns defeated the Sluggers at Bigal park Sunday by the score of 4 to 0, easily through the excellent pitching of Winters who did not allow a hit in the seven innings that were played. He struck out 6 out of the 21 men that faced him and did not give a base on balls. None of the opposing players reached first base. McDermott caught a good game and Winters was given excellent support by his team mates.

No Cough

Have not coughed once all day? Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine right at hand.

Your doctor's approval of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will certainly set all doubts at rest. He knows, for he says, "It is a doctor's medicine right at hand."

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Where the Little Fairy Lived

She Heard a Little Voice

"PAPA," said Evelyn, "where do the fairies live? I'd like to go and visit them some day."

"I wouldn't," said Jack, "I'd rather have them come and visit me and bring me presents of gold and silver and good wishes, as they do in the stories."

"I am not quite sure where they live now," said daddy, "but I can tell you where they used to live. It was in the flowers. That is, they lived in the flowers in the spring and in the summer, when the flowers grow. In the winter they made their homes in the hollow trees and in caves and slept like the bears."

"Once upon a time there was a little girl who went out into the fields to gather flowers for her mother. Near her home there was a large field in which many kinds of flowers grew. They were all very beautiful, and the little girl thought it would be fine to get a large bunch of them for her mother. But when she stooped down to pluck a flower she heard a little voice coming from it saying, 'Oh, please, little girl, do not hurt me!'

"Then the little girl was puzzled, for she knew that flowers could not talk. So she stood up quite straight and asked, 'Who are you that are talking to me?' And the tiny voice answered: 'I am the fairy who lives in the flower you want to pluck. It is my home, and if you pluck it I shall have nowhere to go.'

"Then the little girl said, 'I should like to see you, little fairy.'

"If you promise not to harm me I will come out," said the little voice.

"So the little girl promised, and the fairy came out. She looked just like the pictures in the story books, with wings and a gold crown on her head and all."

"Did the little girl really see her, papa?" asked Evelyn.

"Yes, dear," said daddy, "and she promised not to pluck the little fairy's home. But she also said to the fairy, 'I should like to have some flowers to take home to my mamma.'

"Very well," said the fairy, "I will take you to a place where there are flowers in which no fairies have their homes." So she led the little girl to a field a little farther on, where there were many beautiful flowers, and she helped the little girl pluck a large bunch to take home.

"Did the fairy give the little girl any gifts, daddy?" asked Jack.

"Not at that time, Jack," said daddy, "Later on, when the little girl visited the field again and she and the fairy became great friends, the fairy gave her many pretty things. But it's bedtime now, and we'll have to leave the fairy and the little girl."

CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, ETC.

Eczeema, Acne, Tetters, Salt Rheum, etc. are simply the ulceration of skin tissues, caused by humors and acids in the blood. The circulation has become infected with impurities which are being constantly deposited into the pores and glands of the cuticle, and a continual state of inflammation and irritation is thus kept up. Just as long as these humors and acids remain in the circulation the skin affection will continue. The trouble may be temporarily soothed and covered over with external applications, but such treatment does not make the blood any purer, and can therefore be of no permanent benefit. To cure any skin disease it is necessary to purify the blood—remove the cause. S. S. S. Cures Eczeema, Acne, Tetters, Salt Rheum, pimples, eruptions, etc. because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation and drives out every humor, acid or impurity. It cools the feverish blood and allows it to furnish the skin with healthy nourishment, instead of fiery, acid deposits. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, mild and pleasant in its action, it does not cure skin disease by forcing all the impurity to the surface, but stimulates the excretory members to carry it off through the natural avenues. If you have a skin affection you can not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It will assure you in quickly restoring the smooth, even texture of the cuticle, and the cure will be permanent and lasting. Book on Skin Diseases free to all who write.

BALLEY'S COMET

(Copyright, 1910, by Frederic Campbell.)

April 25. Halley's comet rises 3.06 a. m. today and tomorrow at 3.04 a. m. Sun rises at 5:02 a. m. Speed today about 1812 miles per minute. Comet slowly creeps eastward in constellation Pisces. Begins to sweep from its apparent purpose of striking the earth and enters on a path which will carry it between the earth and the sun.

have all lodges have a memorial on that day, and I would suggest that all lodges appoint committees to co-operate in this matter and complete a program for this occasion at Cedar Hill cemetery.

WAS IN DANGER

A frightful runaway occurred on West Church street about noon on Monday. William Charles, a driver for the G. F. Saur grocery, had delivered some groceries to a family near Seventh street, and as he approached the wagon, the horse started. Young Charles sprang on the step of the wagon and endeavored to get on to the seat, but was prevented by the rapid progress of the horse. He clung to the side of the wagon, spectators expecting every second to see his limbs caught in the wheels. Fortunately the horse was stopped near the Central school house by a Mr. Hess and young Charles escaped with a number of bruises.

During the season of navigation of 1908 there were 48 steamers fitted with mechanical refrigerating plants sailing from the port of Montreal, with a combined cold storage space of 1,105,566 cubic feet.

The trouble with the fellow who takes his own part is that he always wants more.

OBITUARY

MR. GEORGE HUFFMAN.

Mr. George Huffman, a well known man, died Sunday afternoon at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Bertha Bagent, 139 Madison avenue, after an illness of some time, aged about 35 years. He is survived by one brother, Joseph Vanashton of Black Run, and two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Bagent, of 139 Madison avenue, this city, and one sister who lives in Frazerburg. The body was shipped to Frazerburg Sunday night on the 9:25 o'clock Panhandle train, and the funeral services will be held from the home of his sister in that place, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Patterson. The interment will be made in the Frazerburg cemetery.

MRS. ELIZA A. STAHL.

Mrs. Eliza A. Stahl, aged 78 years, died very suddenly on Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Stenger, 97 Grant street, death being due to heart trouble. Mrs. Stahl was in her usual health when she retired, and when she did not arise at the usual time in the morning, upon going to her room, the family was greatly shocked to find that all signs of life had fled. Her husband preceded her to the grave several years ago. The surviving members of the family are two sons and three daughters, G. M. Stahl, of Jewett; O. Charles Stahl, of McKeesport, Pa.; Mrs. Emma Davis, of Kilgore, O.; Mrs. D. P. Waddington, of Fowler, Colo.; and Mrs. J. E. Stenger, of this city.

Short funeral services will be held at the late home in Grant street on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. C. Roof, and the remains will be taken to Jewett, O., for services and burial, on Panhandle train No. 10.

ODD FELLOWS ANNIVERSARY

The anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America was fittingly observed by the Odd Fellows of Newark Sunday afternoon at Odd Fellows Temple. The hall was crowded with Odd Fellows, daughters of Rebekah and their friends and a program of most interesting nature was carried out. The music for the occasion was furnished by friends and a program of most interesting and instructive addresses on Odd Fellowship were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Bennett, pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist Church, this city, and by County Clerk Ed. M. Larson. The anniversary was one of the most successful and enjoyable ever held in Newark.

Gold Dust

Does more than clean

Your pots, pans, kettles, dishes, knives, and other utensils need more than mere cleaning. Soap and water simply clean the surface. Gold Dust not only cleanses but sterilizes—it drives out every bit of dirt or hidden germs which are bound to lurk in oft-used utensils. It will leave your kitchen things not only clean, but sanitarly safe.

Gold Dust will enable you to do your work more quickly, save your strength, and give you better results than soap or any other cleanser.

For Evening Dresses A Great Sale of Seco Silk All Colors 25c Yard

These are the 35c and 38c fabrics, and are all in self colored dots of two sizes. If you want an inexpensive dress of rare beauty you can not find a fabric to equal these fancy Seco silks at anywhere near such a price. They are our biggest sellers for evening dresses at 35c a yard, but we are going to feature the entire line of colors and shades this week at 25c a yard.

40 pieces to select from—cream, champagne, white, Nile, maize, royal Copenhagen, tan, cardinal, jasper, rose, pink, wisteria, light blue, pearl and black.

200 Umbrellas, $1.75 and $2 Qualities, $1.18 Each

This is a sale of neat, high class umbrellas, with only the quietest of handles, such as boxwoods, plain mission, carved woods, inlaid silver and daintily trimmed silver handles, all in silk glorias of good qualities with silk lined edges. There isn't an umbrella in this lot of 200 but what is a regular $1.75 or $2.00 value. All kinds tomorrow at $1.18.

Rain Coats and Rain Caps For Girls and Boys All Sizes $2.50 Each

This is a splendid value. We have never seen its equal for less than $3.95. They come in all sizes from 6 years to 14 years, in red, navy, tan and in combinations of navy trimmed in tan collars and cuffs. Guaranteed to be waterproof and most excellent for children for rainy days. All sizes, $2.50 each.

PECULIAR INJURY TO NELSON WALTERS AT FOUR MILE LOCKS

Nelson Walters, a well known young man, living on the Mebron road, about six miles from Newark, and who has been working in a saw mill near Cranville for some time had the misfortune to meet with an accident Saturday night in which he sustained injuries that will prevent him from working for many weeks. Mr. Walters had been out to his home and was walking into the city when he stepped on a stone at the four mile locks, throwing him heavily to the ground, and breaking his left leg at the ankle.

An Inspiring Invitation to Economizers Is the Immediate Message of Our Great Hurry-Up Sale

The "hurry ups" are still turning out in larger crowds than ever during the second week of the great Hurry Up Sale. There seems to be no let up or lull in the buying. The crowds seem to be increasing instead of decreasing as the sale progresses. We are going to make every day this week the banner bargain day of the sale.

Something new and different will be on display at special prices every day. So you must get the "Hurry Up" habit and come every day if you want to share in the special offerings. It will be worth your while and pay you well. Our hurry up invitation is open to all.

ENTERTAINMENT UNDER AUSPICES VETERAN LEGION

Quite a number of old soldiers and citizens generally met at Memorial Hall Sunday afternoon and were more than pleased with the entertainment that was given under the auspices of the Union Veteran Legion. Not only were the soldiers of the Civil war present in large numbers, but soldiers of the Spanish-American war, members of the G. A. R. and Sons and Daughters of Veterans were present and enjoyed the following interesting program: Singing "America" by the Audience.

Invocation Rev. Mr. Trout.
Opening address, Rev. J. L. Wyly of Cranville.
Presentation of Shields to Comrades Burton and Frederick of Cranville by Chaplain Willis, with the change by Colonel Willie.
Music, Glenn Sisters.
Remarks on "The Flag," by Colonel C. H. Kibler.
Presentation of small silk flags to members by Colonel Joseph Avery.
Vocal solo, Mrs. Tenny Rees.
Remarks, Judge Walter A. Irwin.
Remarks, Comrade T. A. Jones of Cranville.
Remarks, Rev. Mr. Trout.
Music, Glenn Sisters.
"Marching Through Georgia"—Audience.
Benediction, Rev. Mr. Trout.
Soother itching skin. Hea's cuts or burns with a soap. Cures piles, eczema, salt rashes, any itching. Logan's Ointment. Your druggist sells it.
If it is in town they have it at Brick-ers City Drug Store. 14-d-tt

If Old Ways Were Always the Best

The world of business would have stood still if old ways were always the best.
It is the new things that have made for progress and prosperity.
We recognize new ways and ideas in our banking business as soon as we believe they mean for better service, for our customers and our policy in that direction proves itself right by a service not surpassed elsewhere in the state.
